

Maryland Mayflower Society Preliminary Review Form

- This is an initial application. The Maryland initial application fee is $200.00, or,
- This is an initial application, and I am a child, sibling, or parent of a member of the Maryland Mayflower society in good standing. The Maryland initial application fee is $100.00, or,
- This is a supplemental application of a member of the Maryland Mayflower society in good standing. The Maryland supplemental application fee is $75.00.

Notice: Maryland application fees are pre-paid and are not refundable. This preliminary review form must be accompanied by the appropriate application fee and mailed to the address below.

In addition, if and when the Maryland Historian(s) approve your application for transmission to the General Society of Mayflower Descendants in Plymouth for final review and, hopefully, approval, a non-refundable filing fee is due to GSMD and must accompany your application. We will ask for that fee at the time we send a completed and Maryland approved application to you for signature.

USA

The purpose of the preliminary review process is to allow the Maryland Historian team to obtain the most recent parallel record from Plymouth and to generate a draft application based on what we know. Your next steps will be to research further, identify and secure additional records that raise the quality of the supporting documentation to a level that meets the State Historian’s approval. The General Society of Mayflower Descendants will review the final application and its decision is determines whether you will be approved or not.
